About BuildingEnergy Events

BuildingEnergy events are programs of the Northeast Sustainable Energy Association (NESEA). NESEA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that helps high-performance building, energy efficiency, and renewable energy professionals improve their practices by learning from and networking with one another. Learn more about NESEA programs and membership at nesea.org.

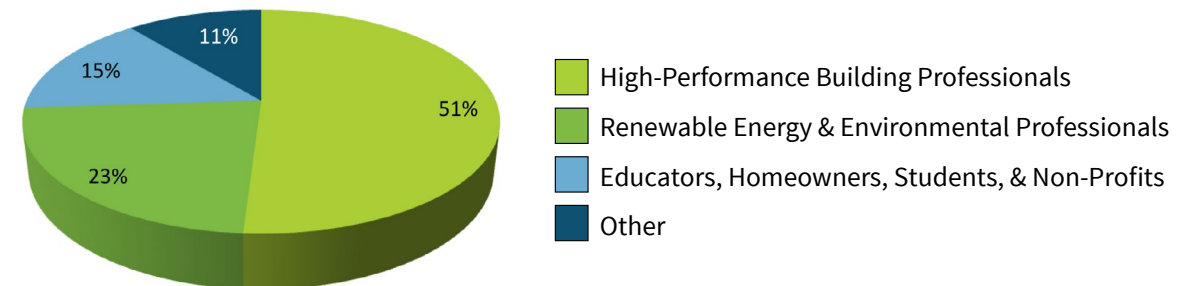

Why Sponsor or Exhibit?

Sponsoring and/or exhibiting at BuildingEnergy events positions your company as an industry leader in the fields of high-performance building, energy efficiency, and renewable energy.

These events attract thousands of professionals and practitioners each year and reach tens of thousands through NESEA's extensive communications and outreach. Sponsors and exhibitors frequently find new customers and business partners on our trade show floors and at other events throughout the year. We make it easy to customize your participation to ensure that you get the most out of your sponsorship or exhibiting experience.

Who Attends?

Each year, BuildingEnergy events bring thousands of architects, engineers, designers, planners, builders, policymakers, manufacturers, owners, installers, and others together to learn from and network with each other. This highly interdisciplinary crowd is united by their commitment to developing a sustainable built environment.

About BuildingEnergy NYC

In 2012, NESEA brought BuildingEnergy to New York City with the same process and rigor that has made the BuildingEnergy Boston Conference + Trade Show such a success.

The BuildingEnergy NYC Conference + Trade Show is NYC's premier event for professionals and practitioners in the fields of high-performance building, energy efficiency, and renewable energy. It brings more than 600 industry leaders and emerging professionals together to learn from and network with one another.

Industry leaders like Steven Winter view this conference as the single best resource for networking and content sharing on energy efficiency in large commercial and multifamily buildings in New York City. It attracts all the key players from the building, sustainability, and resilience sectors for a full day of sessions on best practices and lessons learned.

This year's event will be held on October 3 & 4, 2018 at the TKP New York Conference Center. Visit nesea.org/benyc18 for more information.

About BuildingEnergy Pro Tours

BuildingEnergy Pro Tours are half-day tours of high performance buildings all over the Northeast. They are selected by a committee of NESEA members based on performance metrics, led by the project teams, and followed by a reception and/or workshop. Pro Tours provide an opportunity for sustainable building and energy professionals to witness cutting-edge projects firsthand, share knowledge, and learn from colleagues.

More than 700 industry professionals throughout the Northeast attend a BuildingEnergy Pro Tour every year. In addition, Pro Tour Series sponsors gain exposure to tens of thousands of practitioners throughout the Northeast through NESEA's marketing efforts.

Contact Miriam Aylward, Program Director, at maylward@nesea.org or at (413) 774-6051 ext. 14 for more information.

"The Pro Tour sponsorship experience was smooth, seamless, convenient, and a great way to share our message and brand with a broader like-minded audience."

-Jim Giberson, Marketing Manager, Wright-Ryan Construction
